About Apollo

Apollo, PA lies 45 minutes northeast of Pittsburgh, PA and has a population about 1600 people with several surrounding communities connected to it. The town is considered a suburban area that sits along the Kiskiminetas River. The river is accessible by the Roaring Run Recreation area which many people use to enjoy the outdoors. The median age is 41.4 and many families believe this is a great area to raise their children.

The Next Pastoral Leader

The church is looking for a pastoral leader who is called to reach the community surrounding the church. The preferred candidate would be a biblical preacher and teacher who can inspire others to live out their faith. A person who can be a relationship builder across generational lines and relate well to persons of all ages. A leader who can root people in Christ and lead them to see God's mission to reach to their community. They desire a pastor who can help them re-establish small group bible studies, youth ministry, children's ministry and outreach to the surrounding area. Here are some key qualities the church is looking for in their next pastoral leader.

- Biblical teacher and preacher
- Relational in approach
- A leader of prayer
- A genuine worshipper
- Ability to equip others
- Organizational leader
- Genuine & humble
- Willing to listen
- A leader that helps focus on mission and vision
