A divorce of a plan participant automatically nullifies all previous beneficiary designations by the participant in favor of the divorced spouse.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MARRIED PERSONS

If the Primary Beneficiary named above is not your current spouse, and you wish to provide the Primary Beneficiary with the greatest benefits possible at your death, you must have your current spouse complete the following. If this is not done, your Primary Beneficiary may not receive all of your benefits.

SPOUSAL CONSENT TO WAIVER OF SURVIVOR ANNUITY

I, (print spouse's name) _____, am the spouse of the applicant. I understand that the applicant has elected to waive her/his right to a qualified pre-retirement survivor annuity which may provide me with a survivor annuity at her/his death. I consent to such waiver. I acknowledge that should the participant predecease me, there will be no benefits payable to me.
