	Now Hiring: Ministry Coordinator Are you passionate about making a difference? Do you want to build authentic relationships, invest in the next generation, and help shape a thriving church community? If you have a heart for ministry—whether it’s youth, worship, digital media, outreach, or leadership—we want to meet you! This is not a one-size-fits-all position! We are searching for a Ministry Coordinator who will prioritize Youth Ministry while also helping lead in worship arts, digital engagement, outreach, volunteer development, or community partnerships—depending on your skills and passions. If you bring energy, creativity, and a heart for people, we’ll shape the job around you! Possible Ministry Areas You Could Lead: <ul style="list-style-type: none">  Youth Ministry (Priority) – Build relationships with middle and high school students, create engaging youth gatherings, mentor students, and plan retreats, camps, and mission trips.  Worship & Music Arts (Priority) – Lead Sunday worship (if gifted musically), develop worship experiences and cultivate a passionate worship team.

 Digital Ministries & Social Media – Use video, design, and storytelling to connect with people beyond the church walls through digital platforms.

 Community Outreach & Partnerships – Build relationships with local schools, organizations, and service projects to make a tangible impact in our community.

 Volunteer Coordination – Recruit, train, and encourage a thriving team of volunteers who bring the church’s mission to life.

 Fundraising & Development – Help create and implement strategies for financial and resource support to expand our ministries.

We’d love to hear your story! Tell us about yourself and your passions by sending a resume and cover letter to Pastor Shane Bengry (shane@dfmchurch.org).

Be part of a growing church with a big heart—let’s make an impact together!

Additional information of interest to applicants.

We’re seeking a team player with chemistry, character, calling, and competency—someone who:

- ✓ Loves God and loves people
- ✓ Connects well with students, families, and volunteers
- ✓ Brings a unique passion and skill set to ministry
