	Position to be filled: Senior Pastor Eastmont Community Church (Free Methodist) is located in East Wenatchee, Washington, seeking a full-time lead pastor. Approximately 70 to 80 people attend on Sunday morning at 9:30 for worship and challenged by the Scripture. The membership consists of full-time residents from the local area who are committed to continuing to serve God in the community. The church is Christ-centered, Spirit-filled, and biblically based, with a mission to Love God, Love People, and Make Disciples. The Church is financially stable and debt-free. It is centrally located with comfortable facilities on a large acreage for expansion. Several apartment buildings are nearby. The Columbia River separates East Wenatchee and Wenatchee but shares some public services, such as fire protection. They contain school districts of similar enrollments. Several youth leagues are available for elementary-age students and high school students. The larger community supports Wenatchee Valley Community College, a professional community, and music and fine arts. An exceptionally large medical community has about 200 physicians, two large clinics, and a hospital.

The major workforce is in agriculture, largely apples and other fruits, supported by an agriculture science research center. Dams on the Columbia River are the source of very reasonably priced hydroelectric power. Thus, Microsoft, Google, Yahoo, and others have established server centers here in East Wenatchee. East Wenatchee is also a growing area where Costco and several major businesses are established.

North Central Washington, which includes the towns of East Wenatchee, Wenatchee, Cashmere, Chelan, and Quincy, boasts of unequaled outdoor recreation in summer and winter. Summer water sports on Lake Chelan, Lake Wenatchee, and the Columbia River are always inviting. River rafting and mountain hiking/biking are available. Winter activities include skiing and snowboarding on Mission Ridge. Fishing and hunting are within an hour's drive of East Wenatchee. There is something for everyone.
