

Position: Director of Operations

Shoreline Conference Overview:

The Shoreline Conference is a network of 100+ Free Methodist Churches in Michigan (plus a few in Indiana, Ohio, and Winsor, CA). The emerging vision of the conference is to build up Spirit-filled leaders that collaborate together to saturate Michigan with the transforming love of Jesus. To realize this vision, we are committed to pastoral formation, developing and releasing new leaders into the mission of Jesus, multiplying new congregations, and stewarding resources for greater Kingdom impact.

Position Overview:

The Director of Operations is responsible for overseeing the administrative, operational, compliance, and risk management functions of the Shoreline Conference. This role supports the mission by providing strategic leadership in operations and business administration, ensuring effective stewardship of resources, and assisting both the conference executive team and local churches with operational matters.

This is a part-time time position, with the potential of becoming a full-time position based on operational needs and the capacity of the ideal candidate.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a resume with references and completed questionnaire responses to Superintendent Erick Ewaskowitz at erick@fmcnorthmich.org by 12/15/25. We look forward to welcoming a dedicated individual to this impactful role full of new opportunity to saturate the state of Michigan with the transforming love of Jesus.

Questionnaire:

1. How would you describe a Spirit-filled leader and how do you tend to your ongoing Spiritual formation?
2. What has led you to apply for this position and in what ways do you believe your gifts and experiences would uniquely serve the conference well in this role?
3. Describe your approach to and experience with developing leaders and building teams for missional impact?
4. What excites you about serving in the new Shoreline Conference?
