

Somerset Free Methodist Church – Lead Pastor

We are looking for a Spirit-filled missional leader with gifts in disciple-making, visionary leadership, and community outreach to lead the Somerset Free Methodist Church, in Somerset Center, Michigan. This growing congregation of 40-50 people has a heart for making disciples and impacting its community with the love of Christ. The next pastor should be someone who demonstrates genuine empathy and compassion while possessing a deep understanding of rural communities and the diverse socioeconomic backgrounds they encompass. This individual should approach others with grace, value meaningful relationships, and have a natural ability to connect with people from all walks of life.

Somerset Center is located in a small rural area known for its lakes and seasonal tourism, attracting many visitors during the summer months. Its fluctuating population creates economic challenges for local businesses, and while larger cities are nearby, they are located 30+ minutes away.

This part-time position includes a cash salary & pension. Interested candidates can send a resume and references to Superintendent Erick Ewaskowitz at erick@shorelinefmc.org
