Pastor, Gaylord Family Fellowship. Gaylord, Michigan is an up-north destination for year-round vacationers. As the only city in the county, young families migrate from small towns and villages of the region. As its name implies, this 25-year-old church purposes to reach families in area, drawing from a school system of 3,000 kids and more than 15,000 residence in the region. The opportunities are limitless. The need is great.
