

North Michigan Conference
of the Free Methodist Church

Lead Pastor – Lighthouse Church, Barryton, Michigan

We are looking for a Spirit-filled missional leader with gifts in preaching, community outreach, and visionary leadership to lead Lighthouse Church, in Barryton, Michigan. This growing congregation of 80-100 people has a heart for making disciples, developing leaders, and impacting its community with the love of Christ. The church is also passionate about reaching the next generation and recently brought on a part-time children's ministry director.

Barryton is a small village in Mecosta County, located in Central Michigan. Candidates must possess a heart and passion for ministry in rural settings. We are seeking a pastor who genuinely values small town life and the people who call it home, someone who embraces our rhythms, respects our roots, and sees the beauty in ministering to a hardworking, down to earth community.

This full-time position includes a cash salary, parsonage, and pension.

Interested candidates can send a resume and references to Superintendent Erick Ewaskowitz at erick@fmcnorthmich.org